

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH (BHLT)

BHLT 290: Clinical Inter/Behavioral Hlth

This course builds on communication and clinical skills learned throughout other coursework and provides the student with a framework for the development of critical thinking skills and patient centered care perspectives within a variety of healthcare settings. Clinical reasoning skills such as patient triage, hierarchy of needs, short term and long term goal setting, and advanced assessment will be covered.

Credits: 3

College: Jefferson College of Health Professions

Schedule Type: By Appointment - 1 student, Lecture, On-Line